Description:

From one of Germany's finest wine regions, Rheinhessen, lies the Saint Josef Dornfelder vines grown upon picturesque valleys in Bingen to the North and Worms in the South. Plucked from Oppenheim, the village close to the heart of master importer Gregory Miller, these grape vines share the fertile soils of Rheinhessen's vast farmlands with many other crops and was the town where he resided in during his winemaking studies as a college graduate.

The Dornfelder grape varietal was bred in Weinsberg in the German state of Württemberg in 1955. Most red wines in Germany at this time were light in color and mouth feel. German vintners were seeking a red grape that would provide a deeper color, stronger yet subtle tannins and the luscious fruit flavor of other distinguished red grapes. Thus, Dornfelder was born. Remarkably, Dornfelder is so strong, that it is resistant to rot, ripens early and is at its best when pruned to produce 7-8 tons per hectare.

Enjoy this sweet and full bodied Saint Josef Dornfelder red wine with grilled or roasted meats. The abundant fruit of this wine combines well with hearty red sauces that can be paired with vegetables and pasta. This brilliant extension of the Saint Josef family of wines will offer you high-end style at an affordable price. Enjoy this unique, limited release sweet red wine from Germany and see for yourself the results that quality innovations in the vineyard and in the cellar can have on your wine enjoyment.
